

“Inspiring Science from Ireland’s Silicon Valley”

Irish Science Teachers’ Association
52nd Annual Conference NUI Galway

April 11th - 13th 2014

Dear Colleague,

I am writing to you regarding the booking of exhibition space by your company at our 52nd Annual Conference. We will have some high profile keynote speakers including the European Commissioner for Research, Innovation and Science Máire Geoghegan-Quinn and anticipate a very good attendance.

Exhibition space will be sold by the table.

1 Table:	1.6 m	€150
2 Tables:	3.2 m	€300
3 Tables:	4.8 m	€400

The main area for exhibitors will be along the Concourse in NUI Galway and Rooms 202, 203 and 204 along the Concourse. Further information about the location of exhibition stands and parking will be sent to those who make a booking. Please complete and return the attached booking form before Friday 7th March 2014 to secure a place. Please note that spaces are limited and will be assigned on a first-come basis.

You may wish to place an Advertisement in the special Conference Brochure. Sample brochure available to view on our website under publications www.ista.ie Should you wish to do that, the rates are:
